Editors' Note

Wow! I can't believe it's over. This yearbook is the sweat and blood of so many people here at TFHS. It's a great remembrance of the 2001-2002 year. We hope you enjoy it.

Growing with this class has been quite the experience. The class of 2002 has had its ups and downs like any other class, and we are happy to say, "we made it"! It all started back in seventh grade when we first came together. Coming from different schools, such as Erving, Gill and Sheffield, we began our journey. Growing together we finally reached our last year in high school. And look at us now! We are mature, independent adults on our way to success. Our class really seemed to come together this year, bonding during float making and other activities. I hope we keep the friendships we have made over the years and never forget our experience at good ol' TFHS. I know I'm not the only one who would like to say thank you for making this one of the most memorable years of my life.

Sincerely,

April Davies
Yearbook Editor

Dedication

Mr. Koldis

The special person we dedicate this years yearbook to has been an asset to the Turners Falls High School for thirty-four years. Out of those thirty-four years he has been a member of many departments. The last twenty-three years he has dedicated to the Social Studies department. During this period he has also served as a Assistant Varsity Football Coach and Head Varisty Baseball Coach. He was very knowledgable in all areas and it was a pleasure to be in his class. Mr.Koldis, along with his two side-kicks always put a smile on a students face along with faculty as we were leaving for holidays. Everyone who had the pleasure to be in one of his classes was privileged. Mr.Koldis is a great teacher and a great friend. He taught, but also knew how to have fun. I know I speak for many people when I say, "Thank you, Mr. Koldis, we love you and miss you."

Right: Corwin, Amanda, Kate, James and Shawn show off their awesome outfits at the prom...dont they look amazing.

Finally one more year of school to go. Next year we'll be seniors, and many will be focusing on college, and other post-high school plans. Beyond those complications we cant forget about that one more float we have to build. This year we had another 1st place float. The theme was board games, and ours was The Game of Life. The class was represented by our prince and princess Peter Lapachinski, and Allyson Greene.

Fundraisers included ornaments, a holiday breakfast, dances, and a prom fashion show. The prom was held at the Hotel Northampton. Now that all of the prom planning is out of the way, we will be finalizing a clas trip.

It will be busy year, which is a scary thought, but even scarier to some i that we'll be the oldest. Despite it being busy, lets create some memories, and have a lot of fun.

Sophomores 2004

hurley

class of 2004

This was a disappointing year for the sophomores in the outcome of our class float.The main theme for the competition this year was board games and our challenge was to create a float in the design of Candy Land. As we have come to realize constructing people is more difficult then it looks.

As sophomores we have already done one fund raiser and have scheduled many others. The mugs we sold were a hit and hopefully the proceeds from that and money from other projects will help us greatly in making a really nice prom and even a better class trip.

Next year as juniors will be "crunch time" for us. We need to start thinking of our future and final years of school. There are only two more years of high school left for us now, and most of us are becoming young adults. Thinking about college is hard for us but we all hope to recieve our diplomas soon.

Freshmen 2005

class of 2005

This is a year we will never forget. Days after the start of school, our nation was hit by terrorism. September 11th was a sad day for Americans, young and old.

For the 2001 Booster Day festivities the float themes was Board games. We decided we would build Mouse Trap, it was a lot of work and a lot of fun. Our class was represented in the court by John Waynelovich as Knight and Alayna Zellman as Lady in Waiting. Our float didn't win this year but our class is ready for next year's competition.

We all have so much to look forward to in the coming years. I hope everyone has a fun and safe summer.

Congrats Craig, I wish you the best! Keep your head high & if you need anything you know where to find me. As for your comment in my yearbook; WRONG! I'll always be the better looking & superior brother! Careful what you say the or the next time I'll have to steal all your girls! Chad

Susan,

These pictures represent just a sliver of the memories we share together. I am so glad that we are able to say that they belong to us. Having you through high school has been a blessing.
I love you, Douglas

Doug,

The years we've spent together have been incredible. No one can make me smile like you, and i love you for it. I may not see you too much in the years to come, but I'll always remember you and be happy when I think of all the good times we've shared.
Love, Susan

Jessica Edson

A major part of your life is completed, the growth from child to young woman. You have gathered many treasures and stored them in your memory banic: sunsets, sunrises, mountain tops, oceans, smiles, embraces, births, deaths and choices that you make that create what lies ahead for you, I know you will create many more beautiful treasures to store. Remember, All you need is love..but I know you know that already.

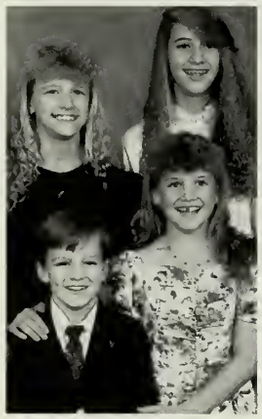
Danielle Marie Hodsdon

Dani,

You have the most wonderful spirit, faith and dreams. We know you have what it takes to be all you want to be. After all, you are a "Worden Woman". You have our love and support behind you all the way! Remember, Daddy and Nana are watching over you. May all your dreams come true...

Kimberly

Boston, Atlantic City, Washington DC, NYC, The Cape, Orlando, Slovenia.Where haven't you taken us with that awesome tap dancing of yours? You have given us so many wonderful memories, and we know that's going to continue as you head off to your new world off college. You've got a heart big enough to share with the Tin Man, you can dance circles around Lola, and we know no matter where you are, you'll still be Rockin' the Boat! We can't tell you just hoe proud of you we are, or how much we love you. We can tell you, though, what we wish for you:



We hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
Bod forbid love ever leave you empty-handed;
We hope you still feel small when you stand behind the ocean
Whenever one door closes, We hope one more opens;
Promise us that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance...
WE HOPE YOU DANCE
We hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
Never settle for the path of least resistance
Living might mean taking chances, but they're worth taking
Loving might be a mistake but it's worth making;
Don't let some hurtful heart leave you bitter
When you come close to selling out, reconsider
Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance
And when you get the chioce to sit it out or dance...
WE KNOW YOU'LL DANCE

Congratulations, With All Our Love,
Mom & Dad, Lisa, Aubrey, & John

Congratulations Jessica & Jennifer!

The day you both came into our life, our hearts were filled with love and joy.
As the years went on the love and joy has grown just like you.
We wish you both success in whichever path of life you choose.

Erin Morrissey

Erin-

It seems like only yesterday that you came into this world, lovable, sweet, and precious. And through all these past 17 years you've filled my heart with joy and love beyond my wildest expectations. I am so very proud of who you are, and all of your accomplishments. I can only hope that I had at least a little bit to do with it.

As ou embark on your journey through life, please remember how our family has kept us strong through all the hardship, and very happy through all of the good times. Remember that Katy and I will always be there to help you through thick and thin, and to just be the closest friends you could ever have.

I wish you the best of luck now, and always. As you have a special place in my heart, you will always be lovable, sweet and precious.

Daddy

Dear Erin-

Where have the years gone? Where is the little baby, my first granddaughter? Where is the curly haired blonde who delighted all of us at age two by identifying squares, octagons, rectangles, triangles, and even a trapezoid? What happened to the little girl who loved me to read "I Can't, Said the Ant"? When did she turn into a teenager who loved to sing, play the flute in the marching band, and most of all, perform in some wonderful musicals? And now-a lovely, caring, young woman, who makes all of her family very proud. And lastly- where IS that girl who, on the way from South Deerfield to Turners Falls a few years ago, signed a declaration (which I stil lhave) that stated, "I will never have a boyfriend!"?

When you first learned to read I recall how pleased I was when you informed me you had obtained a library card. I told you that if you enjoyed reading, you could be anything you wanted to be. Well, now you've proven it, and I am so proud to be called your...

Gram (aka H.O.G.)

YAY!!!!!! You have made it!!!!! Graduation is such an accomplishment, and I am so excited for you. You are so lucky to be going through this, it is one of the greatest times in your life. The coming months will be both the most fun and some of the most difficult of your life. I wish I were you right now.

I love you,

Sam

Erin,

I know sometimes we fight like sisters, but we make up for it when we laugh like friends. We have a truly unique relationship, and even though we will no longer be able to do the things we normally do (talk for 48823478 hours about the same things OVER and OVER, sing about random kindergarten children named Dennis [or IS it?], or astound others with our amazing ability to start a conversation right smack dab in the middle) on a daily basis, that relationship will never change. I have always looked up to you and I'll al\ways be right behind you. Congratulations on graduating, but more importantly, thank you for being everything I ever needed in a sister and in a (yes, Im saying it) BFF! Haha, good luck in college and take some advice: DON'T name your children Popolito or Midgebo, ask for a bunch of ham fat when ordering cheeseburgers, and stay a young spring chicken as long as possible! I love you!

Your favorite sister, Katy

To Meagan Jane Matusz:

We sat and we pondered,
How do we summarize?
All the pride and enjoyment,
You've brought to our lives?

You started with Barney Bubba
Glowie and snuggle,
Walking through school
With little struggle.

We've watched dance recitals,
Cheering tournaments and softball,
Elementary band concerts,
We've sat through them all.

Now that you're grown
We can't wait to see
All the new things you'll bring
To our family.

Congratulations!

Alexandrea,

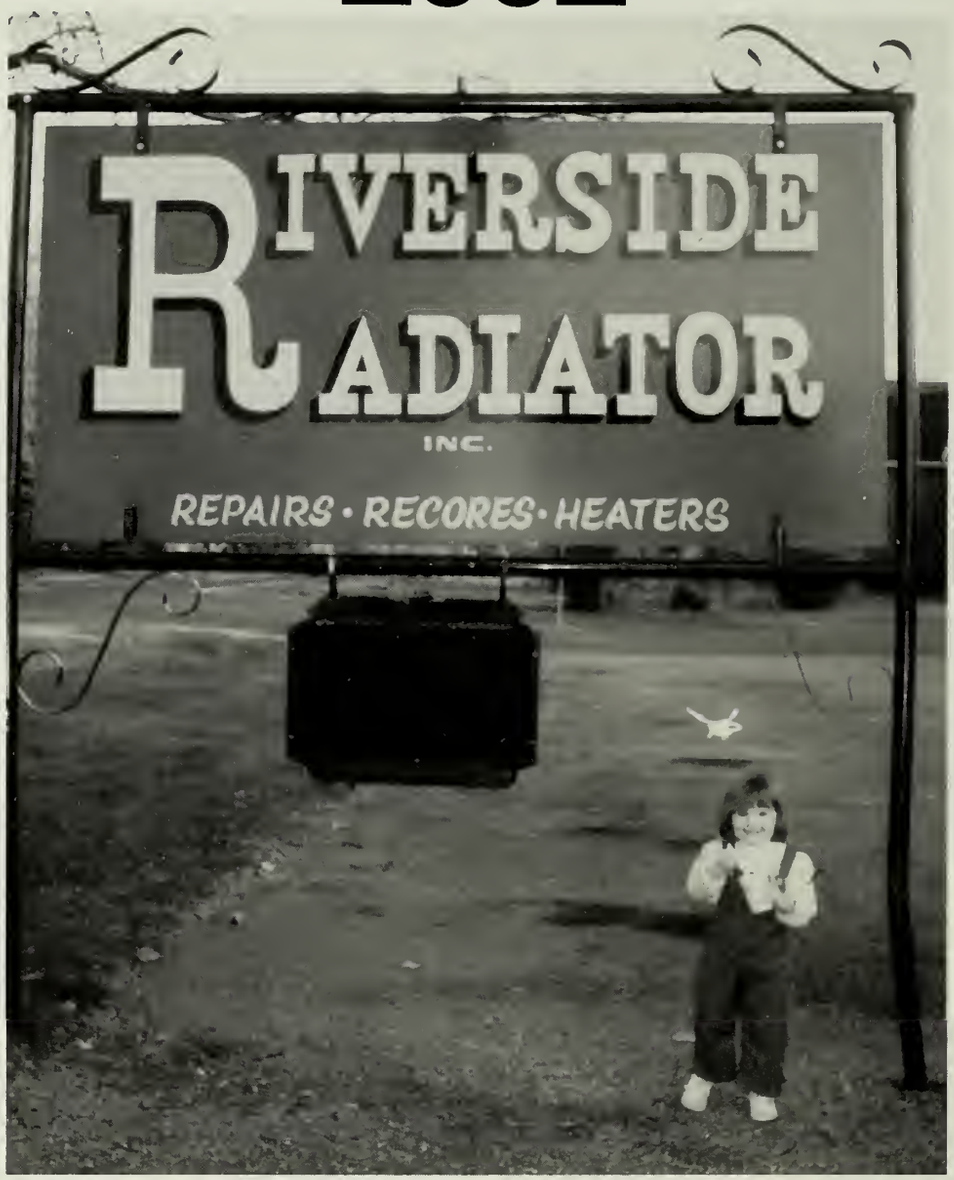
My third daughter to graduate. I am so very proud of you. You have had to face some challanges in your young life, and you are about to face many more. But as you have proven you can handle most anything. Don't ever lose that unforgettable smile. You truely are a specisl person. We will always be here for you.

With our love
Mom + Bill

Congratulations Class of 2002



Special Wishes To Carly!!

Best of Luck to my other two daughters:
Tiff & April

To my little pumpkin,
Over the years you have strived to be the fine young women you are today. Through our ups and downs we have learned much about eachother and grown from each experience. You have always come through life's difficulties with the Dodge determination. You will conquer the world with this quality. Small in body, big in heart. That is you. I am very proud of you and love you very much.

Dad

Jennifer Dodge

My buddy, my pal,
From the tears of joy when you were born to the pride in my heart as you graduate. You have become an exceptional young lady with a compassionate heart and a true humanitarian spirit. You have brought much fun, laughter and self reflextion into my life. We count on eachother for guidance and support, and we have learned quite a few lessons in life together. I don't know what I would do without your honesty, spunk, and love. I am so lucky to have a daughter who is a true friend. Your presence lights up my soul. I'll always be here for you. You can attain anything you want in life. Go out and get it. Believe in yourself and remember your faith.

I love you Jennifer,
Mom

Jennifer,
Our eldest granddaughter. From little Princess to graduating young lady. When you live life in a manner that you can always be proud of yourself, it is necessary to do anything extra or specialto make your loved ones proud of you. They already will be. We already are To your own self be true.

Love, Grammy and Grampy

Congratulations to our "Shining Star."
We are proud of you Jen. We have enjoyed all those special times together throughout the years. The very best of luck in whatever you choose to do. You are very special to us.

We love you,
Nana and Papa

Jen,
I can't believe how fast time has gone by. It seems like yesterday that I was tying you up to the chair and now I consider you to be one of my best friends. I wish we could do it all again so we could have been this close longer. I just want to let you know that I am very proud of you and everything that you have accomplished. I wish you the best of luck in the future and I will always be there for you. I will miss you and all the fun times that high school brings to a young man and woman's life.

Love, Christopher Dodge

Jennifer,
We've had a lot of fun and memories growing up. I'll never forget our sleepovers with Celene Dion (FWEE) and dances with "Boys is Mine". The trip to Cape Cod with "Lil Caboose". Good luck next year.

I love you.
Sarah

To our Jen-Jen,
The memories are many, the laughs they are plenty-"Taepoop" and "Baywatch Swimmer". Keep that special smile and winning personality. No one will replace the NINE.

Love,
Aunt Renee, Uncle Jim,
Nicole and Ryan

To Our Master,
Thanks for all you hugs and kisses,
Brushing our teeth and combing our hair.
Who will take casre of us when your gone?
Dad?Not.We love you Can we come with you ?Please!?!

Desi and Snnuffles

Dear Jen,
